

WILLIAM T. MCGRATTAN

BISHOP of CALGARY

Wednesday, January 8, 2020

As we enter a new year, National Campus Life Network's Executive Director, Ruth Shaw, will be coming to Calgary on January 31, 2020 to speak on the current state of the pro-life movement in Canada.

Operating on 17 Campuses in 13 Cities across the country, the National Campus Life Network works to protect the unborn by educating our young people about the perils of the culture of death and the hope and beauty that a culture of life offers both our present society and future generations.

The students within today's classrooms are tomorrow's leaders. Our culture holds many views about abortion which are questionable both morally and scientifically. The National Campus Life Network equips our students to question and critically assess these views. With compassion and love, the National Campaign Life Network has been successfully revealing the truth of life and our human dignity.

Having experienced a 47% growth rate between the fall of 2018 and winter of 2019, National Campaign Life Network has demonstrated that they understand how to effectively reach our youth. Please join National Campaign Life Network and the Diocese of Calgary's community of prolife organizations as we work together to explore ways to better serve both our youth and the unborn.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Most Reverend William T. McGrattan
