HOLY NAME CHURCH

The Thirty - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 18th 2018

A Reflection on the Gospel

This Sunday is the second to last Sunday of our liturgical year. As we approach the end of the Church year, our Gospel invites us to consider Jesus' predictions and teaching about the end of the world. In the context of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words about this are spoken to his disciples as he prepares them for his passion and death.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus' observation about the contributions being made to the temple treasury and the example of sacrificial giving that he saw in the poor widow's offering. If we had been reading Mark's Gospel continuously, we would have heard Jesus predict the destruction of the Temple, his teaching about the costs of discipleship, and the woes that will accompany the end times. Finally, we would have heard Jesus instruct his disciples about the need for watchfulness so that they will not be caught unprepared for this final day of judgment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus continues this teaching by offering his disciples signs to look for that will indicate that the coming of the Son of Man is near. His words and images draw upon Old Testament imagery, especially images found in the Book of Daniel. Next, Jesus offers the lesson of the fig tree, a parable that teaches that if one knows how to read the signs, one can be prepared for the end times. Jesus also teaches, however, that no one knows when the end time will come, except the Father. In the verses that follow this reading in Mark's Gospel, Jesus continues to warn his disciples to be on watch for this end time.

Jesus' words are not spoken to frighten his disciples, nor should they frighten us. Rather, they are offered to prepare us for the changes we will experience during our lifetimes and at the end times. Our consolation and hope is found in the lasting nature of Jesus' words and God's never-ending love for us.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory." MARK 13:26

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond?

* NEW * Gift Table

The Eucharist Table, Credence Table and Gift Table are important components of the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

The Gift Table is treated with respect as the bread and wine are set on it in preparation for the Procession of the Gifts. No secular items are to be placed upon it.

The Presentation of the Gifts

Why we "take up the gifts:"

In delivering the bread and wine to the altar, the laity are participating in Christ's holy sacrifice.

Pope Francis greets a family as he accepts the gifts during Mass at St. Peter's Basilica

Last weekend's Financial Presentation is available to view on the Parish Website or hard copies are available in the brochure rack in the Gathering Area.
